

Dr.med.univ. Vinzenz Auersperg

Curriculum vitae

Birth July 17th, 1960 at Klagenfurt, Carinthia, Austria.

Gymnasium and Matura (1979) at Seitenstetten, Austria.

Military service 1979-1980.

Study of human medicine at University of Vienna, graduation 1988 (Dr. med. univ.).

Internships:

- 1988 Orthopaedic University Clinic Vienna
- 1989 Lorenz Böhler Hospital Vienna
- 1989-1990 General Hospital Amstetten
- 1990-1991 General Hospital Mödling, Lower Austria
- 1991-2006 AKH Linz, Upper Austria
1992 -1996 orthopaedic trainee
1997-2006 orthopaedic surgeon.
- Since 2006 Primarius (Surgeon in Chief) at the Orthopaedic Dept. of the Public Hospital Steyr, Upper Austria.

Personal skills and competences:

Orthopaedic main topics are joint preserving procedures (arthroscopic knee and shoulder operations) and joint replacements (hip, knee, shoulder). Founding and developing the shoulder ambulance at the AKH Linz, the interest was focused on tendon repair.

Since 1992 experienced in extracorporeal shockwave therapy at orthopaedic indications.

Scientific work:

More than 50 presentations at national and international meetings and conventions, publications in Austrian, German and US-American journals and teaching work at the nursing school of the AKH Linz and at the Fachhochschule Steyr (University of Health Organizational Logistics)

Memberships:

- Since 1992 member of the ÖGO (Austrian Orthopaedic Society) (Managing Board Member since 2006)
- Since 2003 AE-ComGen (Arbeitsgemeinschaft Endoprothetik) in Germany.
- Since 1997 member of the AK-ESWT (shockwave working group) of the ÖGO since 2002 leading the AK-ESWT
- Since 1997 member of the ESMST, later changed into ISMST (International Society for Medical Shockwave Treatment), managing board member since 2002
President of the ISMST 2004-2005
General Secretary since 2006
- Since 2003 member of the DIGEST (German-speaking International Society for Extracorporeal shockwave therapy), member of the managing board since 2003
- Since 2007 member of IGEH-INRO (Internationale Gesellschaft zum Ervorschung von Hirntrauma; International Neurotrauma Research Organization)

Disclosure

Conflict of interest statement

- Vinzenz Auersperg is currently an investigator on clinical studies evaluating total hip arthroplasty funded by Smith&Nephew and receives personal remuneration from that.

- Vinzenz Auersperg received in the past fundings from Boeringer-Ingelheim to participate at advisory board meetings regarding oral medications against thromboembolism.
- Vinzenz Auersperg received in the past grants from Zimmer (before Centerpulse, Sulzer Medical AG and Allopro) to participate clinical studies evaluating total hip and knee arthroplasty and received personal remuneration from that.
- In the past Vinzenz Auersperg received from 1992 to 1994 support for travel costs from Siemens AG (working group for developmet of orthopaedic shockwave therapy).

Additional personal information

Married since 1990 with Catherine Auersperg, borne Feldscher

Children: Clemens (1991), Paula (1992), Constantin (1993), Clara (1995)

Failbles for (classical) music, history, hunting, skiing.

Addresses:

Private: Ebelsberger Schlossweg 5

4030 Linz

Austria, Europe

vinzenz(at)auersperg.cc

Office: Orthopädie LKH Steyr

Sierninger Strasse 170

4400 Steyr

Austria, Europe

vinzenz.auersperg(at)gespag.at